

NJ Board of Directors – Administrative Vice Chair Report

4/22/2024

Administrative Division

Currently working on gaining access to our domain name as it expires at the end of this year. It has not been easy to meet the requirements they have set to prove to them we are authorized to access the account. No one seems to have previous login information and we've already had two failed attempts to access the account.

Nothing else to report.